PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Koror State Tour Guide Certification Program 2018

The Koror State Department of Conservation & Law Enforcement (DCLE) wishes to inform all tour guides, tour operators, and the general public that the Koror State Tour Guide Certification Program 2018 will begin its first class and testing this January 15-19, 2018. Classes and Exams will be administered one scheduled period on the 3rd week of each month.

The Koror State DCLE is now accepting all applications, renewals, and registrations for this year's Tour Guide Certification. All applicants including renewal applicants must fill and submit all applications and required supplemental documents to the Koror State Rangers Central Office prior to registering in a Class & Exam. All renewal applicants before expiration of their tour guide licenses are advised to make arrangements ahead of time to schedule and register into a Re-fresher Class and Exam in order to remain in compliance with Koror State Tour Guide Certification Act and continue to act and work as a tour guide in Koror State.

Please note that Koror State DCLE will undertake a new scheduled hours of procedure for the Tour Guide Certification Program's application processing, screening, and registration during the hours of 10 am until 2 pm on standard business days. We kindly request interested individuals and all applicants or renewals to observe the newly scheduled hours of operation for all matters regarding tour guiding in Koror State.
